

Privacy Policy

re Dell Deaton websites

This Policy applies to any website or content created by Dell Deaton. It specifically applies to those to which Dell Deaton has linked it, including those URLs listed in the endnotes below.<sup>1</sup>

All websites listed under endnote 1, below, were created by Dell Deaton, who continues to own these properties in their entirety and administer all editorial content thereon.

See Terms of Use for these websites.

Other Applicable Policies

All websites rely upon hosting provider Bluehost and pay its service at arms-length. The hosting home page and Privacy Policy are provided under the endnotes below.<sup>2</sup> All websites covered herein are subordinate to the extent to which Bluehost can and does exercise hosting provider control, and the Bluehost Privacy Policy is incorporated by reference as integral part of this Privacy Policy.

Some of the websites included under endnote 1, below, may, from time to time, provide access to original, highest-available-resolution images that are separately hosted on Flickr, and, as such, the Flickr Privacy Policy<sup>3</sup> obtains with regard to that content.

Comments, Media, and Cookies

To the best of content creator and administration knowledge, these sites have disabled all abilities related to instances where visitors are permitted to leave comments or upload images to one or more of these websites. None of these sites by way of the electronic data capture through the Internet solicits, accepts, or obtains, nor retains visitor-specific data.

Content from Other Websites

Articles on any or all of these sites may include embedded content such as videos. It is understood that embedded content from other websites behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited said other websites directly.

The same holds true for links to all offsite content.

Such websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor visitor interactions by way of that embedded content, including by tracking visitor interaction with the embedded content if said visitor has an account and is logged into that website.
